Fantastic Florida

Florida really is a great place to go to and whilst most of the time you are not going to need one of those brilliant Florida Guide it certainly comes in useful and this is simply because there is so much to do out there!

Time To Eat

There are many restaurants located within Florida that you can actually find elsewhere in the USA but of course like other states, there are thousands unique to Florida which is great. Although ones like the Golden Corral are located across the US I have not experienced any other one that has done their world famous golden corral volcano pudding cake as well as the chains in Florida do. You need to know that a lot of the restaurants out there are of course buffet which is great to a certain extent but if you are staying out there for a while you can easily start to put on the pounds which is not good at all of course.

Time For Theme Parks

Okay so the main reason people travel out to Florida is not because of the food but because of the theme parks like the Wizards World of Harry Potter and who can blame them, they truly are fantastic! There are so many theme parks out there including Disney and Universal studios, it is great stuff. Florida is actually not just about Disney and Universal, it is all about the other parks too like Busch Gardens and of course Gatorland.

If Florida is still something you have never done then I would say just do it because it is a fantastic place to go to no matter how old you are. Just get out there and have fun!
