Hotel Fun For All The Family

Seeking the perfect holiday spot for a short break, where the whole family is satisfied, can be pretty tricky. Such factors including location, family facilities and price are all big priorities to bear in mind. Why not add some flare into your holiday and book a hotel with themed bedrooms, making it even more exciting for your children? Here's some hotels that have amazing and varied themes throughout their rooms.

Holiday Chessington Inn

Step into Africa when you check into the Chessington World of Adventures Resort Hotel

This hotel has a safari theme running throughout, and gives you a feel for Africa, when in fact you're in the middle of Surrey. On the grounds outside the hotel there is their Wanyama Reserve where you can see animals such as zebra and antelope roaming - you can even upgrade your room so you have a view of the animals from your bedroom window! For a few extra pounds you can bag one of the specially themed rooms that come complete with a tented sleeping area for the children. Along with all of the wonderments of this cracking hotel, there is also the added bonus of the theme park being right on your doorstep.

Alton Towers Resort

There are so many different themed rooms to choose from here, you'll be spoilt for choice.

At the Alton Towers Hotel there is a Sonic the Hedgehog Room, Sleepover Room, Peter Rabbit Room and a Chocolate Room to name a few! Or you can stay at the Splash Landings hotel which has Pirate Themed Rooms for you and your family to enjoy. Whichever hotel you pick, the kids are going to love it.

Drayton Manor Hotel

Drayton Manor theme park are opening their own hotel this summer.

This brand new hotel is still under construction but is due to open in August 2011. It is set to have a Thomas the Tank Engine theme running through it, which is in keeping with the Thomas Land they have at the theme park. Expect character breakfasts and a few themed Thomas bedrooms - essential for families with children who love the famous blue steam train!

Disney Paris Hotel

With seven hotels to decide from at Disney Land Paris, the tough part is choosing where to stay!

At Disney's Hotel New York you can step into the Big Apple, go to the Wild West at Disney's Hotel Cheyenne or stay at the Disneyland Hotel where you can enjoy character breakfasts. Even better, it's just a very short distance from the park. Your kids are sure to love the magic of Disney at the hotel and in the park.
