

Published based on Suggestions For Individuals Who Need A USA Passport Name Change

Suggestions For Individuals Who Need A USA Passport Name Change

Foreign travel is often a great annual vacation but there are times it is planned to commemorate a special occasion. If the occasion is a marriage or honeymoon, there may be the need for a name change on an existing passport but there is no need to worry about the procedure. A United States Passport Name Change can be processed quickly and easily if you go to an online passport website. The stress and complicated procedures are all a thing of the past.

A name change on your passport is required if your name has been changed so a variety of reasons - whether it's by choice or because of a recent marriage or divorce. This service is reserved for people over the age of 18 who have previously owned a valid United States passport and have recently undergone a legal name change. By addressing this problem through a reputable online passport service, you can easily streamline the process and get yourself traveling in no time. These online services can even get your updated passport expedited if your travel plans have you leaving the country any time soon and even childrens passports if you're bringing the kids along.

Certainly, when ever any change is requested concerning a document as important as a passport, documentation is required. You will need to produce legal documents confirming your identity to insure that identity theft is not being attempted. An official Passport Name Change Application is the beginning of the process. Once completed, your passport name change process is begun. You will be required to produce your current passport as well as proof that the name change is legal. That will require a marriage certificate or divorce decree. You will also need updated passport photos and proof of your intent to travel.

There are a couple different scenarios for those who are looking to get their name changed on their passport for travel. The first and best scenario for a bump-free process is for if your passport has been renewed within the year and if you also have proof that your name has been legally changed. There is no fee for this, unless you decide to get your passport expedited to you. For this scenario, you only need the documents mentioned before: a name change application, photos, proof of name change and your current passport.

If your passport is more than one year old, you will need to produce all the above listed documents. In this situation, however, you may be required to pay an additional fee.

The process is a little different if you are under the age of 16 with a passport over a year old or if you can't prove your name change. This scenario requires all the previously mentioned documents with the additional of three public records indicating that you have been using the requested name change for at least five years.

Online passport processing can handle all of your passport needs, from getting you a baby passport to a USA Passport Name Change. If you trust your service with them, you will see that trip planning doesn't need to be a nightmare. And with less things to stress about, you can start to enjoy your vacation more.

You can also find this article published on Suggestions For Individuals Who Need A USA Passport Name Change , and on the tag pages Name, passport name change, passport name change application, process, scenario , United States passport name change.