Three Of The Top Spa Hotels In The World

There are so many spa hotels out there that people enjoy going to when they are in need of a lot of relaxation and there are many hotels that are suitable for some people but then again not suited for others. These three hotels are some of the best around and anyone can afford to go there which is always good, being treated like royalty is fantastic.

This resort is top notch, in fact it is five stars and it can be found off the south coast of Goa next to the Sal River. The great thing about this hotel is that it is right next to a fishing village so if you fancy going for a bit of a fish this is more than possible. The hotel has 78 acres of tropical grounds and has 185 guestrooms. The spa specialises in something known as warm stone massages and has a big variety of ayurvedic therapies.

This is another one for Goa and it is because Goa is actually a great destination for spa hotels. Most of the treatments that happen here are massage based but they also have facial and body treatments too. They are located just 15 kilometres from the airport which is always nice and have 45 acres.

If you are stressed then you most likely need a break and there is no better way to do this than to have a nice spa break! You deserve a break every once in a while you know!
